Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock

By Apostle Moshe Yoseph Koniuchowsky

As many have begun to see that sexual pleasure is part and parcel of the Hebraic life and is not to be compartmentalized as an indulgence of the flesh as the early church fathers taught, a new found dimension is being experienced. As more and more Torah keepers realize that everything we do under the sun, whether praying, studying the Word, or having sexual pleasure in a kosher manner within single, or plural marriage, is a spiritual experience, the need to have Yahshua our Savior reign over every area of our lives has become more apparent. This can only happen by inviting Him into areas thought to be off limits.

Many who understand that Yahshua is the Creator of kosher sex, also understand that Yahshua and the Holy Spirit actually enjoy when we obey Him in sexual relations within marriage. Yahshua is well pleased with our obedience, which is always better than mere lip service. I believe due to this undeniable fact, that the Holy Spirit when invited into the bedroom before, during and even after climax can and will add a whole new dimension of sexual excitement to the love making process. In other words, rather than the husband and wife, or wives trying to satisfy their own flesh and desires, even in the marriage bed, if those about to engage in lovemaking seek His presence, before, during and after, the result is a more powerful time of lovemaking and always results in a heightened state of sexual energy, arousal and orgasm.

The reasons for this is because the Holy Spirit, the great Guide and Comforter, has been given to guide us and lead us into all truth, including lovemaking and an intensity that can only be achieved when He is verbally invited in. I have known couples and plural marriage families, that have always felt that to invite Yahshua to watch while they make love is dirty, vile and below his holiness. They have falsely believed that Yahshua is so set apart, that He has no interest in watching and participating in human sexual climax; nothing can be further from the truth.

Rather the truth is that when the Holy Spirit is asked to guide and Yahshua is asked to conduct the intimate lovemaking, it actually becomes a selfless act and turns what can be an automated sexual release, into a prayerful time of seeking His guidance and a heightened time of awareness of His desire to be in the room! Those who have invited Yahshua into the act of lovemaking, soon realize that Yahshua is not only pleased with kosher lovemaking, but desires to participate in a mystical spiritual bond with the love makers. The only way this can work is if you are willing to have your minds renewed and realize that there is nothing carnal at all about sex; as a returning Israelite, it is part of a Hebrews dependence upon YHWH for all things, even for the most exciting and heightened sexual activities between husband and wife/wives.

All we have to do is carefully study the history of sexual perversions like temple sex cults, where s.a.tan has his followers having sex while praying, singing, dancing, worshipping and drinking blood. In almost every wicked and dastardly false manifestation of worship given either knowingly, or unknowingly to s.a.tan among the heathen, there is inevitably some kind of rebellious sexual act, or sexual activity that accompanies his adoration. This alone is a dead give away to those with discerning spirits that s.a.tan is offering to guide the sexuality of all those illicit and illegal sexual acts outside of marriage. He not only inspires these defiled and rebellious sex acts of worship, but actually orchestrates them, seeking to lord it over his disciples in every area of their lives. Oftentimes alcohol and drugs, or other comforting enhancements, serve as substitutes for the Holy Spirit, in order to make the perversion more intense and more comforting. Now remember that usually where there is a great counterfeit by s.a.tan, there is a great underlying and pure truth of Yahweh that s.a.tan has perverted. While s.a.tan knows that kosher sex within marriage is guided by Yahshua when done right, he has chosen to manifest his wickedness by covertly directing all illicit and forbidden sex acts as acts of personal worship to him. The atheists and agnostics having forbidden sex may not see what they do as acts of s.a.tanic worship, but s.a.tan knows all too well, that this sex, based on rebellion against YHWH, actually pays homage to the father of lies and rebellion. Himself!

While all this false worship involving sex is unknowingly taking place, most believers, especially those refusing to have their minds challenged and those that still cling to church based Puritanical teachings on human sexuality, still are having sex in the dark, metaphorically speaking, even though the lights are on. Why?

Because they have believed the long held and time honored tradition that when they have sex, Yahshua and the Holy Spirit stand outside the bedroom, until the dirty carnal act of sexual climax is over, so that Yahshua and His Spirit can re-enter the bedroom once the sex has been concluded. Nothing can be further from the truth! They in fact stand at the door and knock; if any couple, or husband and their wives, let the Son and Spirit into their bedroom action, they will be sealed and sanctified, as those who rely on the Holy Spirit in all areas of their lives, including teaching and guiding them how to please their partner by selfless love, directed to their partners' needs, as opposed to mere personal satisfaction.

For those few having discovered that there is nothing dirty about sex within a marriage that needs to be hidden from The Master and for those who verbally pray and invite Yahshua to join their orchestration (a type of His intimate care of His own mystical body), there is nothing more sexually exciting than to realize that Yahshua is there in their midst (2 or 3 gathered in His Name), well pleased, watching, enjoying and directing obedient non-rebellious lovemaking.

For those willing, you will soon find the best sex you have ever experienced, as all those involved literally cry out to YHWH in thanksgiving for His permissive pleasures and for the heightened state of spiritual awareness, both during the process and during the orgasms attained. To renew your mind and achieve this wonderful Hebraic concept of purity where Yahshua lovingly through His lordship oversees your bedroom activities, the following prayer times are in order:

- Pray before entering the marriage chamber/bedroom.
- Pray right before lovemaking commences.
- Talk to the Spirit during lovemaking verbally expressing thanksgiving for His leadership and comfort.
- Verbally thank Him just prior to climax and thank Him for being present in Spirit and allowing this great pleasure.
- Pray and thank Him after all have climaxed, for the blessing of kosher and clean lovemaking that has made the marriage bed undefiled.

This may be radically different than what you have been taught, but know this.

YHWH knows this to be true, s.a.tan knows this to be true (have you ever noticed how even heathens and agnostics call out to “god” during climax, that’s the counterfeit given by the god of this world) and today YHWH wants you to know this truth, so that you can be set free completely and then preserve that freedom, until the physical return to this earth of our Mar-Yah the Savior, Yahshua Ha Moshaiach.
