

The Mystery of the Tree-Eytz of Tov and Raah-Good and Evil

Part 2 Did Ahdahm Really Have Two Wives?

Moon 8 day 29 Shabbat

Taught by The RAMYK at BYS Broward County

The tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil are the keys to further confirm the account of Ahdahm's two wives.

The first mention of trees in the earth is in Beresheeth 1:11-12. We are told that each tree brought forth its own kind of fruit. In Beerhseeth 1:29 we see a restatement that these trees will be for fruit. All trees are permissible to Ahdahm and to Lileth and later to Eve within the Garden. From these 2 trees we will soon see a clear confirmation of Ahdahm's two wives over and above the evidence from Scripture that we presented in part one from the Hebrew!

In Beresheeth 2:8-9 we see that YHWH planted a Garden with all kinds of trees for food! But we see that there were two trees in particular that were not for food alone but for the testing of mankind's obedience. These trees do not exist until shortly before Chava is taken from Ahdahm's rib. We can safely assume that when YHWH made Adam male and female from the DUST on the same DAY 6 of creation, that the Garden did not yet contain these two trees. Their very existence here in the text indicates a novum, or new placement of them.

This planting is described AFTER SHABBAT and just prior to Chavah being formed from the rib most like on day one Yom Rishon of the second week. Again there was no need for these trees before Lileth's exit from the center of the Garden, in what would become Jerusalem, to its outer boundaries where she hid from Adam through rebellion and from where she eventually exited to Bozrah in the land of Edom which became Babylon. The tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil were planted there by YHWH. Why were these trees there in the first place?

Before we answer that, in the Hebrew of Beresheeth 2: 21-25 in verse 23 we find the Hebrew literal confirmation of Chavah being the second wife. The Hebrew reads:

Vayomer HaAdahm-ZOAT HA-PAAM OR THIS TIME-bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh, etzeem me atzme, ubasar mebsaree, bone from my bone and flesh from my flesh LEZOT YIQRA ISHA, ki me ish lekacha zot.

So to this one I will call wife because from man was this one taken.

Now we see the term word ZOAT HA-PAHM, meaning this time, or this is the time. In order for there to be a this time, there had to be another, or a different time! Additionally, the occurrence of the word ZOAT, or Le-zot to this one, THREE DIFFERENT TIMES, indicates another one-woman, who was not called isha-wife and was not taken from his bone and his flesh and was not presented to Adam at another previous time, but was at THIS TIME, making this time the time!!

It was at this other time when Ahdahm-zachor male Adam and Adham-nekevah female Adam were both made from DUST on day 6 of creation. Nothing, repeat there is nothing clearer in the Hebrew, which sadly is hidden in all translations! Now the original Adam-male and Adam-female needed no testing for nothing had occurred concerning evil prior to them. Therefore there was no need of the trees of the knowledge of good and evil and the tree of life.

Right before YHWH makes Chavah as an EZER-KENEGDOH, a HELPER who will also be against him, (this is somewhat prophetic, seeing her dual role after the fall into sin as both a helper and occasional adversary) his last act is a warning to Adam that goes like this:

2:16 And יהוה Elohim commanded the man, saying, Of every eytz of Gan Ayden you may freely eat: 17 But of the eytz of the da'at of tov and evil, you shall not eat of it: for in the day that you eat from it you shall surely die.

Now for many years most of you have wondered why on earth was there a serpent in the Garden to begin with? And why were there these two trees? And why put a ban on the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and not the other trees? These questions are valid and excellent and yet cannot be answered without knowledge of the Ahdam-nekevah, female-Adam, that rebelled against patriarchal order. This first Ahdam-nekevah, female-Adam, holds the answer to all these troubling questions.

We will now see that without Adam having a first female, the Garden would be true perfection and the events of chapter three COULD NOT HAVE OCCURRED! It is true that Eve misquotes YHWH, as YHWH said nothing about not touching the tree in Genesis 3:3. But that is not the issue as most bible commentators insist that it is.

In Beresheeth 3:1 we are introduced to the serpent (not snake) s.a.tan. How did he get lawful entry into the Garden? Eden was a state and place of perfection was it not?

Answer he entered lawfully through the rebellion of Adam's first woman-never to be a submitted wife, and thus through the woman, the Adam-Nekevah, s.a.tan brought in his evil into the Garden that YHWH had planted. Genesis 3:1 alone is a witness to s.a.tan being given lawful entry to even be there in the first place. Remember the Garden of Eden is a secluded place of perfection void of evil. Some event other than YHWH Himself opened the door for the devil to be present!

In Genesis 3:1-6 we see s.a.tan lying to them by telling them they will not die at all, if they eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. He tells them that the only thing that will happen is that they will have the knowledge of YHWH and be like YHWH. Now is this true? Yes and no. They would never be YHWH, or like YHWH. BUT their eyes would be open to something very evil!!! What was that something? The answer holds the key to the entire Garden account. Genesis 3:5 is the true part of the lie. The lie was 'you will not die physically and spiritually.' The truth was that if you disobey the first and only Garden commandment, you will know good and EVIL and your eyes will be open. Open to what? I thought the Garden of Eden was a state of perpetual paradise and good. No evil at all. What exactly did Adam and Eve not know, or did they need to know? That's right! That evil had in fact been legally allowed to enter the Garden through Lileth, Adam's first wife to be and that she had rebelled against Adam and His head YHWH Himself. Once evil was banished out of the Garden as the original woman chose to flee, Adam was put to sleep and was given a protection, or amnesia if you will to move forward and forget the rebellion of the one intended to be his first wife and was once considered an Adam nekavah-female-nekavah. The sleep was not merely to take Eve from his side, but to remove the memory of the evil that had occurred previously in the Garden! Adam and Eve was never to even know about this incident of evil that entered the Garden, as YHWH wanted them to remain in a state of complete innocence regarding these prior events.

The overriding point here being that the reason the tree of the knowledge of good and evil was there in the first place, along with the tree of life, was to shield Adam and Eve from the events of the past. They were there so that they could choose life and live and not even follow evil, let alone the evil ways of Lileth. All these things are the strongest of indications that something had gone terribly wrong IN THE GARDEN before Adam was put to sleep and before Eve even was taken from Adam THIS TIME. Remember the wording of Genesis 2:23. THIS ONE, AND THIS TIME, giving clear indication of ANOTHER ONE AT ANOTHER TIME, which was the very incident and event that was labeled EVIL. It was that SPECIFIC EVENT that Adam and Eve were being shielded from and did not need to know anything about. Somehow s.a.tan got to Lileth-the mother of darkness and then later following the same method would come at Eve the mother of all living.

This is why there was an evil in the Garden that YHWH wanted then shielded from. The trees had to be there so Adam and Eve would pass the tests of obedience that the first Adam-nekavah had failed! Once s.a.tan had deceived Eve, they both ate and nakedness and sex became an issue to be hidden and not a beautiful thing to be enjoyed, along with them withdrawing from Yahuwah's presence.

In Genesis 3:11-12 we see that Adam and Eve after running away from YHWH, admit and confess to eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. In Geneses 3:16, Eve is warned to obey Adam and not rule over him like the evil woman before her. She is to ALLOW Adam to lead her! Both become cursed as we well, for eating of the knowledge of a previous evil chapter, so that their eyes were open to the prior events of the Garden. Remember that lawfully had there not been a Lileth, s.a.tan the serpent would have no legal right to be in a state of guarded protection and perfection and there would have been no need to protect Adam and Eve from the knowledge of any kind of evil. The very fact that this tree was allowed to be there and the devil himself was allowed to be there, something we have all wondered about, is PROOF POSITIVE, along with the original Hebrew, that there was indeed an evil incident, or series of incidents between Adam and Lileth and ultimately and subsequently between mankind and YHWH.

Only with this understanding can we finally answer these troubling questions we have held all these years! Genesis 3:17 shows us that as men, we must follow the leading of Yahushua's Ruach/Comforter not the voice of our wives. We are to respect their voices and take it into consideration, if and only when it does not violate the confirming voice and Word of YHWH.

In Genesis 3:22 we see that Adam and Eve now know both the good and the bad of the Garden of Eden. They never became YHWH as s.a.tan had lied about, but had attained the knowledge of YHWH about the prior events that took place in the Garden! (In verse 22 by the way, we see another clear reference to the plurality of powers in the Echad.) As such, they cannot live forever in this fallen state and are thus banished and their end was the same as Lileth, for they had succumbed to the serpent just as she had! According to Genies 3:24 the heavenly malachim-angels guard the way back to Paradise, so that no man, or woman can restore eternal life, both spiritual and physical, on their own without Yahushua the only Redeemer and chosen Savior of mankind.

No student of the Hebrew can argue with this view nor can produce any answers to the questions raised such as why on earth was there a serpent in the Garden to begin with? And why were there these two trees planted by Yahuwah at the Garden's center? And why put a ban on the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and not the other trees?

Since we now understand what the tree of the knowledge of good and evil was, it should be even clearer that the Tree of Life was the abundant life of eternity that was theirs through obedience, without any prior knowledge of the rebellion of Lileth and a life that would know no corruption. The Tree of Life would find its ultimate expression in both the written Torah given for life and the living Torah Yahushua, YHWH's only brought forth Son, given for the life of the world!
