

Editorial:*WHAT DID YAHSHUA CALL HIS FATHER?*By Rabbi/Brother Moshe Yoseph Koniuchowsky

Why are so many believers hypocrites? Is it through ignorance of truth? Lack of available truth? Or is it outright rebellion when confronted with truth. Today in the midst of the WWJD craze, it is high time Messiah Yahshua's people take back the kingdom by their forceful will. The first step is to walk in a path that leaves the WWJD mindset and enters into the WWYD - WHAT WOULD/DID YAHSHUA ACTUALLY DO? If we are being conformed to His image as scripture tells us, then what image of Yahshua is the Ruach carving out for His own glory? If it can be proven from scriptural and secular sources that Yahuwah's Son used and still uses His Father's Name Yahuwah and if our call is to be conformed to His image which includes His speech, then we must also call the Heavenly Father what His own Son called Him.

In John 17 we have recorded Messiah Yahshua's high priestly prayer. We see Him interceding as the Cohen HaGadol on behalf of His talmidim. As such what He prayed on earth and the manner in which He prayed on earth, continues to this day and for all eternity in heaven. Today in heaven as our High Priest, He prays as He did while in Jerusalem (Heb.13:8). In Yochanan/John 17:4 Yahshua states that He is finishing the work the Father gave Him. One of the MAIN WORKS given to Yahshua to perform was according to John 17:6 THE MANIFESTATION OF THE FATHER'S TRUE NAME TO THE DISCIPLES [After 586 years of religious gymnastics]. Thus if the Father desired the 12 disciples to know and use the true Name of Yahuwah, then Messiah Himself also knew it and ALWAYS used it. For to have taught His disciples to use it and not done so Himself, would be hypocritical, which is a form of bearing false witness, a violation of Torah. In Yochanan/John 17:11 Yahshua invokes the Father's Name over the disciples for their protection and then reveals that the Name of Father Yahuwah not only protects His disciples but was given to Messiah Yahshua before the foundation of the world. In the same way He and His Father both carry the Name Yahuwah, all His disciples are to be in that same full accord BY ALL CALLING ON AND CARRYING ABOUT THAT SAME NAME FOR PROTECTION IN TIME OF TRIAL AND TRIBULATION. Unity is found when all disciples, all in one accord, all call on Yahuwah through Yahshua. Not only did Yahshua use the true divine sacred Name, He told His disciples that it's usage was the only key to believers unity and preservation on the earth. Since most believers still do not use His Name, it is safe to attribute most of the religious divisions in His body to not abiding in the very truth designed for that selfsame unity. 30,000 denominations = 30,000 reasons for disobeying Yahshua about His Father's true Name.

Yochanan 17: 6 is a beautiful prophecy for the end times. While on earth Yahshua taught and used the Name and taught it to His disciples thus removing them from the MANMADE ban against it imposed by the apostate seat of Moses. In verse 26 of John 17, we see Messiah Yahshua prophesying that even after He ascends to His throne, (where He is using the Name today for His ministry to the Father on our behalf) that He would once again re-reveal the Name on earth. We see that in the latter days, His true Name is being restored by the Ruach or the power of Yahuwah, amongst His people. So this prophecy is being fulfilled as both Xristians and apostate Jews, are taking the false names off their tongue and finding the true Name as Yahshua said would happen after His return to glory. So we know beyond a shadow of a doubt that Messiah Yahshua and His true followers used the true Name. If one does not use the true Name exclusively when hit with this manifestation, then they are said to be a disingenuous follower since if they truly follow Messiah He will reveal the Name of His Father to all His disciples. If someone does not know and use the Name, they are either not a disciple or they are a deceived disciple. Or how about a sinful disciple (Yakkov/James 2:7)? Hebrews 2:12, Psalms 22:22 reminds us the when Messiah Yahshua was on earth He declared the NAME YAHUWAH TO HIS TRUE BRETHREN IN the midst of the assembly. A true disciple uses Yahuwah's Name in the assembly where it ought to be declared. Do they declare His name in your assembly? Or do they tell you to shut up and stick to HaShem/Gawd.

Can Messiah Yahshua's usage of the Divine Name be documented in history? OH YES IT CAN! The Master Yahshua did not, would not, could not, use HaShem and Adonai as substitutes for His Father's Name because that would have been bringing the Name to naught, a 3rd commandment Torah violation that would have disqualified him from being the SPOTLESS FAULTLESS LAMB. As the LAMB He never stopped using the Name Yahuwah and now in his high priestly role, He has not stopped using it.

The "Toldoth Yeshu", is a rabbinic anti-gospel document dating back to 400 CE, with clear linguistic connections to Matthew's ORIGINAL Hebrew gospel. This indicates that while full of added lies and blasphemy THAT "TOLDOT YESHU" USED THE HEBREW MATTHEW as its base text. The TOLDOT YESHU nevertheless is full of accusation and mockery as we nevertheless find some startling confirmations of John 17. ACCORDING TO "TOLDOT YESHU" OR THE TALES OF YESHU, Messiah's original name was Yehoshua or Joshua. When He "became a heretic/lunatic", His name was changed to Yeshu. Yeshu is made up of yemach shemoh vezichro- "May His name and memory be erased." The first three letters form yud,shen,vav or YSU. [Hebrew Gospel of Matthew p.207 quoting Babylonian Talmud Sanhedrin 43B.]This is why TRUE BELIEVERS who do not want to identify with the mockers of our Messiah, REFUSE AND SHOULD REFUSE THE BLASPHEMOUS TALMUDIC MONIKER OF YESHU OR YESHUA. It is not the Aramaic contraction it is the devil's contraction and the name of mockery TO THIS DAY by unbelieving Judah!

Let them write their magazine articles as they sound sillier and sillier and fall on the ears of a band of decreasing Hey Soos followers. But the facts remain the facts. When we pronounce Messiah's Name as Yeshua, we identify (like it or not) with the lies of the "TOLDOT YESHU." Lets stick to Yahshua or Yahoshua the Name that is uncorrupted in the Hebrew.

The blasphemous yet historically respected "TOLDOT YESHU", states in chapter Passim that "YESHU, PERFORMED MIRACLES BY INVOKING THE FORBIDDEN DIVINE NAME." [IBID p. 208 the Hebrew Gospel of Matthew Howard] That Divine Name forbidden by the apostate seat of Moses was of course YHVH or Yahuwah. So we have preserved for us a secular document that hates Yahshua because He called on and did ALL HIS MIRACLES while using only the Divine Name of His Father.

The last piece of evidence that Yahshua used Yahuwah EXCLUSIVELY in His earthly ministry, is the Hebrew Matthew Gospel written by Matthew. Shem Tov, a Jewish polemist, published the Matthew in Hebrew to show the unbelieving Jews how to answer Christian scholars. No Jew of the middle ages, especially a scribe, would ever willfully insert the Tetragramaton into a text simply because all pious traditional Jews would substitute or mask the Name by abiding under the rabbinical ban of NEVER writing or pronouncing it. The very fact that the first letter hey for HaShem appears, proves that Shem Tov wrote HaShem wherever he found YHVH. The fact that he didn't use Adonai or Kurios proves that HaShem was used everywhere the 19 times Yahuwah's Name was recorded by Matthew himself! HaShem was only a substitution for Yahuwah NEVER for Adonai or Kurios which would have been left intact!

The Messiah and the disciples used only the true Name Yahuwah when referring to Elohim. Terms such as Kurios, Adonai and Theos do not appear in Matthew's Shem Tov, for if they did Shem Tov would gladly have copied them intact. The very fact that Shem Tov HAD TO SUBSTITUTE HASHEM into an existing document, PROVES THAT WHAT WAS THERE ORIGINALLY WAS THE DIVINE NAME WHICH SHEM TOV indicates by his INSERTED usage of the letter hey for HaShem [p.232 Hebrew Gospel of Matthew Howard}.

So we have scripture and history, all confirming that Messiah Yahshua teaches and taught His true followers the Name of Yahuwah, not the title God or Lord instead of Yahuwah. Are you His disciple? If you are you will flow against the stream of learned religious voices screaming WWJD and instead will opt for the silent majority voices of WWYD, what would/does Yahshua do? For if we truly follow Him in His earthly and High Priestly role, we will have no qualms or second thoughts of starting on the righteous path of calling on Yahuwah for protection, revelation and miracles just like YAHSHUA DID!
