DO NOT IGNORE AND CONSIDER! YAHUSHUA OR YAHOSHUA OR YAHSHUA ALL WITH THE SHUA suffix with a VAV, means to cry for deliverance or help or salvation. Does Yah's Son cry out for His own salvation or deliverance from sin? NO! The SHUA suffix of SHEN VAV AYEN is false and not the correct name of the Messiah!

The Masorites again are shown as anti Messiah liars adding vowels to hide the name YAHU 216 times in the Son's name because the Son's name is supposed to contain the Abba's Name which Yeshua יֵשׁוּעַ does not. They hid the Abba's Name some 6,900 times as well by vowel pointing and have done the same to the Son's Name. Notice how Strongs Concordance incorrectly transliterates it as Yehoshua when the Hebrew reads Yud Hey Vav Shen Ayin [Yahusha יְהוֹשֻׁעַ], without the vowel pointing. I REMIND EVERYONE THAT NO TORAH SCROLL IN HISTORY HAS VOWEL POINTING it was a middle age addition by the rabbis designed to mislead and misdirect!

Why would the Masorites add vowel pointing in the 1500s to mislead and misguide? Because YESHU or YESHUA is a rabbinical acronym that means YUMAT SHEMO WE-ZECHRO may His name be BLOTTED OUT AND ERASED. Seems like we all have been punked again!

Friends we are only speaking of a PERSONAL NOUN a proper noun, which is a proper Name; pleaser dont send me verses about yeshuatee and yeshuatecha. Im a Hebrew speaker not a sacred name person that you can trick! I speak only of the NAME not adverbs or adjectives.

When the name is used its always is without the last inserted vav. If we ignore the vowel points which as you can see Strong's Concordance does not, we can have the true Name of the Son and the correct answer to Proverbs 30:4. It is listed this way 216 times almost without exception.

YAHUSHUA and YAHUSHA? Both are used in Scripture, so are acceptable, and have the same meaning. Found 2 times in the TaNaK: "YAHUSHUA" Found 216 times in the TaNaK: "YAHUSHA"

YahuSHA - SHA contains the Hebrew root, yaSHA, meaning Salvation or Deliverance. So, "Yahusha" is the only proven acceptable transliteration.

The Son of YAHUAH, has His Father's Name with a Shin and an Ayin added to the end. Shin means "Tooth" and Ayin means "Eye". So in the death of the Son, the law of an "Eye for an Eye, and a Tooth for a Tooth" is fulfilled.

Making the true name of the Messiah/Savior, in Hebrew, His own language Yahusha pronounced (Yah-hoo-shah).

The Name "Yahushua" is found 2 times in (Deuteronomy 3:21 and Judges 2:7), but in each case they are referencing the person named Yahusha that they are crying for help because of his death (one was Yahusha (Joshua) of Nun), so, this is why the "shua" was added to the end of the name. "SHUA" means "to Cry out for help", making Yahushua an incorrect transliteration for the Name of the Messiah! Strongs #7769 - shua.

“YAHUSHA” WAS PROPHESED

In YASHA/YAHU/Isaiah 62:11 we find a most amazing statement, which properly understood can open our understanding,

YASHA YAHU/Isaiah 62:11 reads, Behold, YAHUAH hath proclaimed to the end of the world, “Say ye to the daughter of Zion, ‘Behold, THE DELIVERANCE/Salvation come; behold His reward is with Him and His work before Him.’”

“His” points back to Salvation and describes Salvation as a person. The Hebrew root word used here is yasha and means salvation, liberty, deliverance, free, to be safe, deliver. Therefore, YAHUAH Salvation, or YAHUSHA, was to come to set at liberty, deliver, free and cause to be safe, the daughter of Zion.

YASHA YAHU/Isaiah 42:1

"Behold, My Servant, Whom I uphold; My Chosen One in whom My BEING Delights. I have put My RUACH Upon Him; He will Bring Forth Justice to the Nations. 2" He Will Not Cry Out or Raise His Voice, Nor Make His Voice Heard In The Street.

MATHATHYAHU/Matthew 12:18-19

Behold MY Servant, whom I have Chosen; MY beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put MY RUACH on Him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles. 19 He shall not Strive, nor Cry; neither shall any man Hear HIS Voice in the Streets.

YASHA YAHU/Isaiah=YAH Saves=YAH Delivers

MATHATHYAHU/MATTHEW 1:21="She will bear a Son; and you shall call His name YAHUSHA, for He will Save/DELIVER His people from their sins."

There is a Major Problem with any of the shua endings of the Savior’s Name. Shua (H-7769) is a term that means to scream or cry out. Although many feel that shua somehow means salvation; it does not. Sha(H-3467) is a primitive root (written as Yasha), and is the masculine form of shua. Sha means to make free, deliverer or Savior. Shua and Sha are truly enemies! Notice the names Al-yasha (ALISHA/Elisha the Prophet) and Al-yashua (Elishua son of DUUD/David). ALISHA/Elisha’s name means, “Alahym is Savior,” while Elishua means “Alahym of supplication.” As you can easily see, there are huge differences between shua and sha. Although the Strong’s Concordance lists sha as yasha, it is found throughout Scripture as an individual word for salvation. Shmu’al Byth/II Samuel 22:3 makes frequent use of the sha root.

My Mighty One is my Rock, I take refuge in Him, He is my shield and the strength of my salvation (yasha). My High Tower and my refuge, my Savior (masha), from violence you do save (tasha) me.

Dabarym/Deuteronomy-33:29 uses the sha root alone for salvation, opposed to yasha

BARUKH are you Yashar’al/Israel! Who is like you? A people saved (sha) by YAHUAH, the shield of your help, and He who is the sword of your excellency! And your enemies are subdued for you, and you tread down their high places. There are hundreds of scriptures showing H# 3467 (sha) stands as an individual.

YAHUSHA (עֲשׂוּיָהּ) vs. Yeshua (עֲשׂוּיָהּ) Yeshua (the Aramaic Y’shua) is the alleged Jewish Messiah and can only be a real word in Modern Hebrew by way of Jewish influence of the language. Where does the Jewish Yeshua come from? Since we know the spelling of the Mashyach’s Name is yd ha uu shan ayn fo gnilleps werbeH eht si tahw יהושע, Yeshua? The spelling of Yeshua is yd shan uu ayn עֲשׂוּיָהּ and is pronounced Yah-shua. Yahshua/Yeshua does not contain the Yahu יהי portion of the Father's Name (Yahuchanan/Matthew 5:43). Yashua (H-3442) only appears in the Hebrew text 29 times. The definition posed to us by H-3442 is 'he will save,' but I have already shown that the shua suffix does not mean salvation: it means to cry. The actual definition for Yashua/Yeshua is 'he cries.' The King James Bible renders Yashua/Yeshua as Jeshua and there is no reference in any of the Hebrew texts that this name was ever associated with Mashyach.

The Jews pronounce עושי as Yeshua because, with their vowel pointed system, they assign an 'e' behind the yd to avoid the repetition of 'Ya'. This in turn renders Ye opposed to Ya. Yashua/Yeshua came into existence after the Hebrews returned from captivity in Babylon, and obviously, the language had undergone a few changes. Ezra 2:1-2 introduced us to the name Yashua/Yeshua for the first time.

Ezra 3:2 shows that Yahusha/Joshua the son of Yahutzdak's name was now written and pronounced as Yashua/Yeshua. Though the pronunciation and written characters of Yahusha(Joshua's Hebrew name) changed to Yashua/Yeshua during captivity by men, his name was given in its pure form (YAHUSHA) when the prophecy was foretold in ZakarYah/Zachariah 6: NO PROPHECY OF THE MASHYACH EVER INCLUDED THE BABYLONIAN SPELLING OF Yashua/Yeshua. There is no reason for us to take the name Yashua/Yeshua and apply it to anything dealing with YAHUSHA.YAHUSHA (עשויהי) vs. Yahshua (עושהי)Some refer to the Jewish Yashua/Yeshua as Yah-shua. Yahshua is spelled yd ha shan uu עושהי ayn.

The implication made here is that the Jewish Yashua/Yeshua should be pronounced as YAHshua because of the yd י, but the yd only makes the 'Ya' sound. We would need to apply ha ה to get יהי 'YAH'. Yahshua does not contain the Yahu יהי portion of the Father's Name (Yahuchanan/John 5:43).The spelling of Yahshua עושהי is not found anywhere in Scripture and does not exist in any Hebrew literature. If you can find the Hebrew spelling of Yahshua עושהי, legitimately, in any ancient text: I offer you $1,000 and a public apology for teaching falsehoods. Every letter of the Hebrew language is essential for giving words life, Hebrew is a living language. When we breakdown the weird spelling of Yahshua, ha ה and shan ש are back to back: שה (Hsh). In Hebrew, two consonants together would give a full sound. Ha and the shan שה would make hash, so at best

Neh 8:17 And the entire assembly of those who had come back from the captivity made booths and sat under the booths, for since the days of Yeshua son of Nun until that day the children of Yisra'el had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing. Yeshua son of Nun was Yehoshua son of Nun was Yahoshua son of Nun

Yahusha or Yahushua

Joshua (English) -Yahusha (Hebrew)

Husha-H#1954 This is the original name of Yahusha (Joshua). It became Yahusha when Moses (Ma-sha) changed his name by adding the letter yd to Husha and it became Yahusha. This is found in the Book of Numbers (Bedmindbar) 13:16. He was not called Hushua. This is more proof that the Messish (Ma-shee-ach) name was not Yahushua but Yahusha.

Joshua's Original Name was Husha. It was changed by Moses in Numbers 13:16 to Yahusha by adding one Hebrew letter to his name Ya.

Shua is from sha by adding vowel points.

Original Name in Ancient Paleo Hebrew had no vowel points!

What is His Name?

יָשׁוּעַ
(Yashu)

יְהוֹשֻׁעַ
(Yahusha)

יְהוֹשֻׁעַ
(Yahushua)

The name Yeshua {ישוע} appears 29 times in the scriptures and is based on a combination of Babylonian Aramaic and misleading Masoretic Vowel Pointings, thereby corrupting the name. The Prophet Jeremiah Prophesied that this would be done in Jer. 23: 26-27, and other's of Yah's prophets forewarned of this.

Yahushua {יהושוע} has One Confirmed appearance in Deuteronomy 3:21; and a possible second in Judges 2:7. In both instances the context is that of Joshua and Israel crying out to Yah which is the literal meaning of "Shua"; (To Cry Out).

The name Yahusha {יהושע} appears 216 confirmed times including Zechariah's prophecy of the MessiYah; the BRANCH of ZechariYah chapter 3; and literally means "Yah is Salvation". "YAH" is the root of Yahuah, while "Sha" is derived from its root "Yasha" (Salvation). This is also the name of the Prophet YashaYahu (Isaiah), meaning Salvation is of YAH. There is no "W" in Hebrew and "V" is a recent introduction based on vowel points.
